

Education Update August 2005

CPIM Courseware

- Per Barbara Jernigan, the Senior Manager, Courseware Quality at APICS Headquarters, no CPIM courseware updates 2005.
- The BOK Council submits changes to the Exam Content Manual, which will be available in October at Conference. Prompts APICS Headquarters reviews the changes to determine if revisions (minor or major) are needed.

CSCP

APICS Headquarters provides CSCP updates via the following:

1. APICS web site - www.apics.org/Certification/faq.htm#CSCP
“The CSCP learning system will be launched at the 2005 APICS International Conference and Exposition, October 16-18, in New Orleans, Louisiana. Demonstrations of the courses will be held and course materials will be available for sale. Instructor materials are scheduled for sale in the first quarter of 2006.”
2. APICS e-mail updates. To subscribe go to: www.apics.org/certification/cscp/updates.asp.

Resources

Welcome to the APICS Certified Supply Chain Professional \(CSCP\) update newsletter. As you know, the CSCP designation is still in development, but as promised you will receive information as it becomes available. In this newsletter, you'll find out how to become a CSCP candidate, about the learning system, and who the subject matter experts are who have helped define the CSCP body of knowledge.

Other information in the e-mail above included:

“To sit for the CSCP exam, a candidate must meet one of the following criteria:

- Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science, plus 2 years of related business experience
- CPIM, CFPIM, CIRM, or C.P.M. designation, plus 2 years of related business experience
- 5 years of related business experience. “

3. Instructor Listservs and Officer Listservs provide opportunity to share information
